

J M Keynes Fellowship Fund Lectures 2018

The Managers of the J M Keynes Fellowship Fund proudly present an evening of special lectures, featuring two of the Fund's distinguished Fellows speaking about their innovative research in the field of financial economics.

Dr David Chambers, Judge Business School

Keynes the Investor

Professor Alexei Onatskiy, Faculty of Economics

*Spikes, trends, and factors in high dimensions:
searching for a needle in a haystack*

Monday 5 February 2018

17.30-19.30

Frankopan Hall, Jesus College, Jesus Lane, Cambridge

A drinks reception will be held following the lectures.

The J M Keynes Fellowship Fund Lectures are an excellent opportunity to hear eminent Economists from the University of Cambridge speak about their research.

This event is free to attend but please reserve your place at:

<https://j-m-keynes-fellowship-lectures-2018.eventbrite.co.uk>