

Student Destinations

Students who study Economics seek careers in the private sector, particularly in financial services, or economic consultancy. Others are employed in the Civil Service, non-government agencies and international agencies such as the World Bank and IMF. Below are some destinations of recent graduates:

BA in Economics	MPhil in Economics	PhD in Economics
Further Study at:	Further Study at:	Public Service:
Bristol	Cambridge University	Central Reserve Bank, Peru
ESADE Barcelona	Charles University, Prague	Colombian Central Bank
UCL	Keio University, Japan	International Monetary Fund
Cambridge	University of Edinburgh	Banking & Investment
Oxford	Warsaw School of Economics	Deutsche Bank
Cass Business School	Management Consultancy	Teaching/Research
Accountancy & Tax	Cambridge Econometrics	Universidad Diego Portales
Deloitte	Europe Economics	University of St Andrews
Pricewaterhouse Coopers	FTI Consulting	Cambridge University
Ernst & Young	McKinsey	University of East Anglia
Towers Watson	Monitor Group	University of Greenwich
Banking and Investment	Oliver Wyman	Oxford University
Merrill Lynch, USA	PWC	University of Oslo
Barclays Capital	Public Service	University of Sydney
Bradesco	Bank of England	Consulting
City Group	Central Provident Fund, Singapore	RBB Economics
Citibank	De Nederlandsche Bank
Deloitte	ESRC Institute, Dublin
Deutsche Bank	European Commission
Goldman Sachs	Iran Banking Institute
HSBC	UK Department for Education
ICAP	Banking, finance & investment
JP Morgan	KPMG
Jefferies International	Aon Hewitt
Lloyds Banking Group	HSBC
Met Traders	Absolute Strategy Research
Morgan Stanley	CICC
Perella Weinberg Pts	J&T Banka, Prague
RBC Capital Markets	Nomura
Rothschild	RWC Partners
Royal Bank of Scotland	Goldman Sachs
Santander UK	Other commercial sector
Societe General	LG Electronics
The Blackstone Group	Dutch-Bangla pack
UBS
Vanguard
Vantage Capital Markets
Management Consultancy
Analysys Mason

Bain & Co

Baker Richards

Board Intelligence

Compliance Asia

Decipher Media

LEK Consulting

NERA

Oliver Wyman

Other Consulting

BG Group

Bunge North America

East Rock Ventures

Inghams

Mediacom

Moss Bros

Public Service

Adhyayan

Budapest Institute

Clearly So

National Audit Office

Tony Blair's Office