

9 June 2016

Hashem Pesaran, John Elliot Distinguished Chair of Economics and Professor of Economics

In May 2016 Professor M. Hashem Pesaran was awarded the honorary degree of "Doctor Oeconomiae Honoris Causa" from the Prague University of Economics. The degree of Doctor Honoris Causa is awarded to those who have made particularly important contributions to science, both theoretically and practically, especially in the sphere of economics. <http://www.vse.cz/bulletin/1349>

He was also awarded the First Eurasia Business and Economics Society (EBES) Fellow in May 2016 during the EBES Conference in Istanbul. <https://www.ebesweb.org/Fellows.aspx>
EBES Executive Board selected M. Hashem Pesaran as the EBES Fellow Award 2016 recipient for his outstanding academic achievements and invaluable contributions to time-series econometrics, including modeling, testing and forecasting.