

J M Keynes Fellowship Fund Lectures 2019

The Managers of the J M Keynes Fellowship Fund proudly present an evening of special lectures, featuring five of the Fund's distinguished Fellows speaking about their innovative research in the field of financial economics.

Professor Vasco Carvalho, Faculty of Economics
Networked Perspectives on the Macroeconomy

Professor Brian Cheffins, Faculty of Law
The Public Company Transformed

Professor Raghavendra Rau, Judge Business School
The disintermediation of finance

Dr Pedro Saffi, Judge Business School
Securities Lending, Short Selling and their Role on Financial Markets

Dr Michael Tehranchi, Faculty of Mathematics
Tractable asset pricing

Thursday 21 February 2019
17.30-19.30

A drinks reception will be held after the lectures

McCrum Lecture Theatre (behind the Eagle Pub), Bene't Street, Cambridge

The J M Keynes Fellowship Fund Lectures are an excellent opportunity to hear eminent Economists from the University of Cambridge speak about their research.

This event is free to attend but please reserve your place at:

<https://j-m-keynes-lectures-2019.eventbrite.co.uk>